"Nancy Ponzi has practiced organic and sustainable farming on her vineyards and in her garden for decades. This book will enlighten its readers to the charm and beauty of fresh ingredients. It shows how with simple technique, extraordinary dishes are brought to life with the perfect wine."

—Alice Waters, Chez Panisse

The Ponzi Vineyards Cookbook is more than just a cookbook—it is a book about the life of one of the most creative vintner families. With over 80 recipes that pair with selected wines and entertaining facts about the rich history of the Ponzi Vineyards, Nancy Ponzi shares her family's love of food and wine. Her expert cooking techniques, ranging from Latin American fare to Italian cuisine make this book a must-have for connoisseur and novice alike.

Ponzi Vineyards founder Nancy Ponzi is recognized as an Oregon wine pioneer. In 1970, she and her husband Dick were among the first to plant Pinot noir grapes in the Willamette Valley, with their sights set on producing world-class wines. After 40 years, her family has accomplished nothing short of their dream. In the early days of Oregon wine, she assisted in establishing the first Oregon Wine Board and other wine promotional groups garnering exposure to regional wines. She co-founded the state's most vital wine events, including the International Pinot Noir Celebration, Oregon Pinot Camp and ¡Salud! Pinot Noir Auction. Nancy is an accomplished cook, with years of experience bringing flavors from around the world to her family table. With sweeping views of the Willamette Valley, Nancy treasures cooking and enjoying meals with her eight grandchildren in her dream kitchen.
